

A New Medicare Advantage Model Could Transform How Care is Delivered at End-of-Life

The organization I work for—VNS Health—has been part of a demonstration project being conducted by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid (CMS), in which participating Medicare Advantage (MA) plans directly manage the Medicare Part A hospice benefit for their members. Read more.

Source

Healthcare-Business Review

Author

Josefina Aquino, Director, Product Management at VNS Health

Display Featured Image

1

Is External

1

External URL

<https://medical-furniture.healthcarebusinessreview.com/cxoinsight/a-new-medicare-advantage-model-could-transform-how-care-is-delivered-at-endoflife-nwid-862.html>

Utility Tile

Array